

I am an active K-Love listener. I have supported the non-profit station for the last few years. If these new LPFM stations preempt K-Love, many people looking for a great message and wonderful music would be affected. I like the fact that they promote Christianity and they promote being a good person. Losing such a station would not only affect Christian's, but anyone trying to become a better person.

Thanks for listening
Mark F. Judiscak
Director of Cad Development
Microchip Technology